20th DECEMBER, 2005:

Per G.S. Singhvi, CJ.

In these petitions, the petitioners have prayed for grant of declaration that rules contained in G.O.Ms.No. 167, dated 26-05-2005 issued by Health, Medical and Family Welfare Department are unconstitutional and that the same cannot be acted upon for nullifying their admissions to the post-graduate courses.

Learned counsel for the petitioners say that in view of order dated 21-04-2005 passed by the Full Bench in Writ Petition Nos. 4880 of 2005 and connected matters, and order dated 05-08-2005 passed by the Division Bench in Writ Petition Nos. 12341 of 2005 and connected matters, these writ petitions may be disposed of as infructuous at this stage, with liberty to his clients to seek revival of the cases, if any such contingency arises in future.

Learned counsel for the respondents say that they do not have any objection if the prayer of the learned counsel for the petitioners is granted.

In view of the above, writ petitions are disposed of as infructuous, with liberty to the petitioners to seek revival of the cases in terms of the prayers made by them. No costs.
